

In The News

Pomegranate
REAL ESTATE
— POM-RE.COM —

Shippensburg Shopping Center sold for $2.6M

December 28, 2012 • By Jim T. Ryan • CPBJNow.com

The Shippensburg Shopping Center, anchored by a Kmart in Cumberland County, was sold for $2.6 million to Philadelphia-area real estate Realty & Development Co.

Willner acquired the 144,000-square-foot Shippensburg Township shopping center on Walnut Bottom Road from Maryland-based Hill Management Co., said Brad Rohrbaugh, a partner with York-based real estate brokers Bennett Williams Realty Inc. Settlement was D said.

In addition to the Shippensburg Shopping Center, Montgomery County-based Willner also owns:

- Summerdale Plaza in East Pennsboro Township, Cumberland County.
- North Point Plaza in Hanover, York County.
- Crossroads shopping center in Manchester Township, York County.